INVITATION

The Centre for Sustainable Business at the Stockholm School of Economics in Riga (SSE Riga), in cooperation with the Swedish Institute and the Embassy of Sweden in Latvia, invites you to the first Baltic school conference on education for sustainable development, which will be held in Riga at Strelnieku street 4a, 21-22 February, 2013. At the conference, we aim to begin the discussion in the Baltic region on how to integrate education for sustainable development in school curricula. So far, there has not been an integrated approach to education for sustainable development in the Baltic States, and we recognize the need to illustrate how to link a traditional framework of subject-based education to a more holistic educational approach of learning about sustainability, as well as to form and strengthen a network of experts who are working with issues of education for sustainable development.

Being one of the leading business schools in the Baltic region, which includes sustainability in its main curricula, SSE Riga understands the responsibility of preparing future students to approach various economic issues through the lenses of a sustainability mindset. For the conference, we are inviting professionals involved in education for sustainable development to engage in a one and a half day joint project aimed towards integrating sustainability in the school curricula. We are pleased to inform you that parallel to this conference, Riga State 2nd Gymnasium is organizing a competition for high school students in sustainable business plan creation. The best teams will attend some of the conference sessions.
